Abdur-Rahmaan - the son of Shaykh Anwar - joins the caravan of the martyrs

American drones strike and Yemeni ministry of defense claim responsibility!!

Brother 'abdur-Rahmaan - Shaykh Anwar's son
(May Allah have mercy on him)

Several raids have been made by the American air-force on the city of 'Azzaan at 9:30 pm on al-Jumma'ah night; 14th Oct. 2011. One of the casualties was abdur-Rahmaan, an American citizen who was only 16 years old; the son of Shaykh Anwar Al Awlaki - may Allah have mercy on them. His martyrdom comes exactly two weeks after his father's assassination.

Abdur-Rahmaan was killed by the American drone aircrafts, but the Yemeni ministry of defense claims responsibility. His killing resulted in condemnation by the general Muslims, especially among the Yemeni tribes.

Observers believe that America which pursues democracy and claims to protect human rights; to have broken its own laws and have abandoned its constitution by targeting and killing this young boy and his father without bringing forth any accusation against them. This is considered the first time where American citizens were murdered in this manner.

The mujahideen ceases the process of "Western robbery of Yemeni gas"

A big explosion destroys a gas pipeline in the province of Shabwah

A picture of the gas pipeline explosion

After three hours from the American airstrike on 'Azzaan, the mujahideen responded by blowing up a gas pipeline extending from Saafar in Ma'rib to port Balhaaf in Shabwah. The gas pipeline was used for international export.

The timed-bomb which destroyed twelve meters of the pipeline, caused a giant flame which was seen from hundreds of kilometers away.

The location of the explosion was well chosen. Residents of Shabwah were delighted by the action; they call it a fight-back warning to the West.

This gas deal is another scandal of Ali Saleh's regime where the price the gas is sold is only 25% of the current price. Because of the deal, the country will have lost 60 billion dollars by 2031.

Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula disclaims the the assassination news of the Egyptian Shaykh (Ibrahim al-Bannaa)

In a statement issued by AQAP which Madad obtained a copy of it. The statement contradicts the news of the killing of Shaykh Ibrahim al-Bannaa by the American airstrike that targeted the city of 'Azzaan, Shabwah. That was announced after the news was spread by the Yemeni ministry of defense. The statement indicated that the lies and claims of the Yemeni regime aren't strange; as they have claimed many times that they have killed this mujahid or that. It added that this time, the regime have lied twice; first when it adopted the American airstrikes and claimed responsibility for it in order to cover up their masters' genocide against the Muslims in Yemen, and it also mentioned that that was a way of increasing the Crusades' trust in it. Second is its claim of killing Shaykh Ibrahim al-Bannaa, describing it as a victory.

In the statement; A.Q.A.P. reminded the Crusades that battles will only give birth to new battles and that the bloodshed of the Muslims won't be in vain.

A bomb hits 'Ashaal

Local media reported that a bomb directed on the car of Muhammad Hussein 'Ashaal exploded while Muhammad was getting out of the house of Mahdi Maquulah (The military commander of the Yemen's southern region). The incident took place in Adan On as-Sbt day; 24th Sept. 2011. The explosion caused severe injuries to 'Ashaal.

The residents of Abyan describe 'Ashaal as a coordinator between Ali Saleh's regime and the tribes' leaders with the aim of causing conflict between the tribes.

The attempt of Ali Saleh's armed forces to invade the area of Bajeddaar in Zinjibaar.

Some of the losses of Ali Saleh's forces - Zinjibaar

In Abyan, the soldiers of Ali Saleh attempted to enter Zinjibaar through al-Wahdah football stadium. These forces were deployed in the stadium's surroundings while backed-up by military air-force, tanks and mortars. Nevertheless, the mujahideen were fully prepared for confrontation. There were fierce clashes between the two sides which resulted - by the grace of Allah - in the driving out of the army. Several tanks, antiaircraft weapon and one armored vehicle were all destroyed. The mujahideen inflected these loses using improvised explosive devices and R.B.G rockets. The confrontation brought about the killing of 50 of Saleh's soldiers and many more were injured.

An exclusive source told Madad that 15 soldiers retreated to al-Wahdah football stadium, the mujahideen then broke into the stadium and managed to kill those fortified soldiers and took their weapons as booty. After that, all the forces that were stationed in the building of the central security retreated to the base of brigade no.25.
